

India International Centre

DR. MANJU KAK (M-3589)

As an author and academician in history, art and culture, Kak has contributed to the sophisticated ethos of IIC's programmes that interweave the finest ideas in art, culture and society for 26 years: a painting exhibition; Whose Media: A Woman's Space (seminar and book); A Craftsman & his Craft (exhibition); They who Walked Mountains (documentary); Roerich a Quest and Legacy (book); Kashmiri Pandits (exhibition); Just One Life (book); In the Shadow of the Devi (book); Ranikhet State of Mind (exhibition); A Culture of Peace (seminar). Her books, First Light in Colonepura and Requiem for an Unsung Revolutionary are in the IIC Library.

Vision: Interactive Virtual Exhibition showcasing the 'Best of IIC', improved Menus, Debate on Public Life and Gender Parity.

Currently as Hon. Treasurer of All India Women's Conference and Regional VP of International Alliance for Women, she takes women's experiences to national and international forums through workshops, dialogues, local initiatives. She is life member IAWS, INTACH, Gymkhana Club; has received fellowships (Hawthornden, Charles Wallace, etc.); and is Trustee of Lal Bahadur Shastri Memorial Trust. She is married to Siddharth Kak, IRS (retd.).