

India International Centre

SHRI PRAKASH NANDA (M-3517)

A journalist, consultant and author with over three decades' experience, Prakash Nanda is presently Editor of Geopolitics.

A member of the IIC since 1998, he finds it a conducive environment to blend the rigour of academics with the craft of journalism.

A former National Fellow of the Indian Council for Historical Research and recipient of Seoul Peace Prize Scholarship, he is a Distinguished Fellow at the Institute of Peace and Conflict Studies. He has been a Visiting Professor at Yonsei University (Seoul) and FMSH (Paris). He has also been Chairman of the Governing Body of a leading college of Delhi University.

Educated at Jawaharlal Nehru University, he has undergone professional courses at Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy (Boston), and Seoul National University (Seoul).

Apart from writing monographs, chapters for books, over 3,000 articles, and columns in national media and international dailies, he has authored four major books:

Prime Minister Modi: Challenges Ahead

Rediscovering Asia: Evolution of India's Look-East Policy

Nuclearisation of Divided Nations: Pakistan, Koreas and India

Vajpayee's Foreign Policy: Daring the Irreversible

He is also editor of the highly acclaimed volume: Rising India: Friends and Foes