

India International Centre

PROF. RAMESH CHANDRA (M-3310)

PROFESSOR RAMESH CHANDRA is an outstanding researcher, builder of institutions of higher learning and distinguished scientist in the field of Biomedical Sciences. He is Professor of Chemistry and Founder-Director of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Centre for Biomedical Research, DU. Previously, he was VC, Bundelkhand University, Jhansi; President, Indian Chemical Society; Member, Planning Commission (UP); and Secretary, Zaheer Science Foundation, Delhi.

He began his research career at DU and, thereafter, went on to the New York Hospital; Cornell University Medical Center; The Rockefeller University, New York; SUNY, Stonybrook; Harvard University Medical School, among others.

He is recipient of several international recognitions, including ISCA Millennium Plaques of Honour and J. William Fulbright Scholarship. He has also been Consultant and Advisor to the various multinational companies; Advisor to various academic institutions and non-official Director of PSUs. Chandra is a prolific writer and displays extraordinary flair for writing on themes particularly to higher education and social issues.