

Shri Surendra Kumar (M-4146)

(75 yrs)

Former Ambassador to Libya, Mozambique, DRC & Eritrea & High Commissioner to Kenya, Swaziland & Malta; PR to UNEP & UN HABITAT, Minister at India's High Commission in London & Consul General in Chicago.

Retired as Dean Foreign Service Institute/Secretary MEA. Adviser (International Relations) INTACH; Director Gen World Economic Forum, Amity University, Edited six books with over 140 Contributors: India of my Dreams, What will Leapfrog India in the 21st Century? India in 2022, India & the world through the eyes of Indian Diplomats, India's Foreign Policy in the Post Covid world & India at 75.

Authored 7 books: Legends of Indian Cinema, Kokila (novel). Sirf Sipahi (collection of Hindi poems), In the minds of the Maestros (coffee table book), Beyond Diplomatic Dilemmas (Memoir), Modi's Midas Touch in Foreign Policy & Who Should Say Sorry for Two Millenia of Injustices?

Founded Indo-American Friendship Associations, New Delhi. Since 2010, organized discussions, talks, performances at the IIC, IHC, NMML, Constitutional Club, Islamic Culture Centre involving over 500 panellists /participants.

Writes for various publications & comments on tv channels.