

India International Centre

09th Nov 2023

Dear Member,

The Centre has replaced its old Telephone Exchange with an upgraded and modern EPABX system which has many additional technological features. Consequently, all the extension telephone numbers have been changed including those of the key functionaries. The new extension numbers would be shortly placed on the Centre's website. The Members in the meanwhile may please note the following new direct numbers of the sections of the Centre with whom they normally interact:
